

Butte County Residents

The Northern California Indian Development Council (NCIDC) is pleased to announce that we will be providing the following services to qualified native households within Butte County at our Oroville office location: 145 Alverda Drive, Oroville, CA 95966 • 530-693-3236. Staff members are Alicia Edwards, Case Manager, email: a.edwards@ncidc.org, and Joyce Jones, Eastern Regional Manager, email: , 530-842-6157.

In order to expedite your application for emergency assistance, we ask that you complete our NCIDC Intake Form online at <https://ncidc-intake.questionpro.com> in its entirety, and attach all of the required documentation-documents with your online application.

However, we will be temporarily restricting public access to all of our offices in the interest of preserving the health of both our clients and staff members. Staff will work with clients over the phone and through email and only conduct in-person intakes as needed on a case-by-case basis. Please DO NOT come to our office without an appointment.

 The following programs are available at the Oroville NCIDC office:

CSBG Emergency Services

CSBG assistance is limited to those in need of emergency/supportive services when no other service is available.

Types of Emergency Assistance:

- Housing assistance provided for relocation or eviction prevention.
- Utility assistance provided for disconnection prevention, or service reconnection, or for the purchase of wood or heating fuel.
- Nutrition assistance provided for limited food resources.
- Supportive services provided for vocational education and employment.

CARES-COVID-19 Emergency Services

NCIDC is committed to giving any support we can in this time of crisis so we will continue our work providing services to eligible low-income Native Americans (this can include emergency rental assistance, food costs, cleaning supplies, and other emergency expenses). We are also working on setting up employment assistance for those of you who were laid off due to COVID-19.

NDWG – COVID-19 Disaster Temporary Jobs in Sterilization and Humanitarian Jobs Program

NCIDC has been awarded a contract by the California State Employment Development Department—WIOA Division (EDD). The COVID-19 National Dislocated Worker Grant is 100% Federally funded in the amount of $600,000. This grant is to provide temporary job creation and pre-job training to assist in the crisis of COVID-19 as Sterilization Technician and Humanitarian Aides for approved Tribal Governments. There are also employment and training services available for dislocated workers seeking new employment. Mandatory COVID vaccination required to participate in this program.

NDWG – CAMP Mega Fire Disaster Temporary Jobs Program

NCIDC has been awarded a contract by the California State Employment Development Department—WIOA Division (EDD). The 2018 CA Megafires National Dislocated Worker Grant is 100% Federally funded in the amount of $3,373,000. This grant is to provide temporary job creation and pre-job training to assist in cleanup, repair and reconstruction of public and private nonprofit property damaged by the recent fire disaster. There are also employment and training services available for dislocated workers seeking new employment. Mandatory COVID vaccination required to participate in this program.

Fire Victim Relief Fund

This Foundation-funded program is to provide nominal monetary support for households that have been victims of the wild fires and their home was burned and have no other resources available to them at this time. Assistance will be limited to those household that are not already receiving significant financial assistance from tribal governments and/or agencies for fire disaster assistance.
